CALIFORNIA NATIVE PLANT SOCIETY GARDEN TOUR TO TAKE PLACE APRIL 18

The California Native Plant Society Orange County Chapter (OCCNPS) will host its annual garden tour, themed "California in My Garden," on Saturday, April 18, 2026, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The self-guided tour will feature private gardens across Orange County that demonstrate the beauty, ecological value, and practicality of landscaping with California native plants. The tour is free and open to the public. Visitors can learn more at <https://chapters.cnps.org/oc/>.

At a time when habitat loss and climate change are affecting wildlife across California, native plant gardens are becoming an important way for homeowners to support birds, pollinators, and other species.

This year marks the 24th anniversary of the Orange County garden tour, which first began in 2002 as the only local tour dedicated exclusively to California native plants. California In My Garden 2026 continues this proud tradition by showcasing beautifully designed, water-wise landscapes that support pollinators, birds, and other wildlife.

California is home to more species of plants and animals than any other state, and Orange County ranks among its most biologically diverse regions. The gardens featured on the tour offer inspiring examples of how conservation can begin at home. In addition to visiting the gardens, attendees can explore educational and sensory stations along the tour, highlighting the cultural, ecological, and culinary connections to California native plants.

Some gardens on this year's tour highlight innovative design solutions, including rainwater capture systems that channel roof runoff into ponds and swales, mature native trees that provide habitat for nesting birds, and thoughtfully designed pathways that invite visitors to wander through layered plantings of sagebrush, manzanita, dudleya, and other California natives. Several gardens incorporate water features, shaded seating areas, and creative hardscape elements that demonstrate how native landscapes can be both ecologically functional and visually striking.

"Each garden on the tour tells its own story," said Elizabeth Wallace, co-President of the California Native Plant Society Orange County Chapter. "Visitors will see how homeowners have transformed traditional yards into vibrant native landscapes—capturing rainwater, supporting birds and pollinators, and creating beautiful spaces where conservation truly begins at home."

Garden Tour Committee Chair Irina Ensminger said the tour offers inspiration for gardeners at any stage. "Whether someone is just beginning with native plants or already has a mature garden, visitors will discover creative ideas for bringing California's natural beauty into their own landscapes."

About the California Native Plant Society

The mission of the California Native Plant Society is to protect California's native plants and their natural habitats, today and into the future, through science, education, stewardship, gardening, and advocacy. Since its beginnings, the California Native Plant Society has been a leading voice in plant science and native plant appreciation, making it one of the foremost native plant organizations in the world. CNPS is a 501(c) 3 non-profit dedicated to conserving California native plants and their natural habitats, while increasing the understanding, enjoyment, and horticultural use of native plants. Working closely with decision-makers, scientists, and local planners, CNPS advocates for well-informed and environmentally friendly policies, regulations, and land management practices. With 36 chapters statewide, including one in Orange County, CNPS offers many opportunities for native plant enthusiasts to get involved. All chapters enjoy the strengths and legal benefits of being one incorporated non-profit organization.

HAVE A 'HOPPY' EASTER WITH A HOLIDAY HAM

When your kitchen is full of colorful eggs, candy baskets, tempting sweets and all that comes with Easter, sometimes a holiday classic is just the answer for simplifying the season. Perfect for pairing with deviled eggs, potato salad and a traditional Sunday feast, this Maple-Glazed Easter Ham provides a hands-off approach to the main dish.

With an easily prepared glaze and your oven doing most of the work, you can keep your attention on time spent with loved ones. Visit Culinary.net to find more seasonal favorites, both classic and contemporary.

Maple-Glazed Easter Ham
Recipe adapted from Southern Living
Total time: 3 hours
Servings: 10

- 1 bone-in spiral-cut ham (8-9 pounds)
- 1 cup pure maple syrup
- 1/2 cup packed dark brown sugar
- 1/2 cup (4 ounces) bourbon
- 1/2 teaspoon grated fresh ginger
- 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon

orange slices and wedges, for garnish
fresh rosemary sprigs, for garnish
Preheat oven to 350 F.

Place ham in large roasting pan and fill with 1/2 inch of water. Cover pan with aluminum foil and bake about 2 hours, basting every 30 minutes with juices from pan, until meat registers 120 F at thickest portion.

In medium saucepan over medium-high heat, stir maple syrup, brown sugar, bourbon, ginger and cinnamon; bring to boil. Cook, stirring occasionally, until thickened, 6-8 minutes. Remove from heat. Cover to keep warm and set aside.

Remove ham from oven and discard foil. Increase oven temperature to 400 F.

Using pastry brush, glaze ham with 1/3 cup maple-bourbon mixture.
Bake ham about 30 minutes until top is lightly caramelized and meat registers 145 F at thickest portion, brushing with remaining glaze every 10 minutes.
Remove from oven and transfer ham to serving platter. Let rest 15 minutes and garnish with orange slices, orange wedges and rosemary sprigs. (Feature Impact)

5 WAYS TO ELEVATE YOUR EASTER CELEBRATION

Easter celebrations don't need to be elaborate to feel special. A few thoughtful touches – from elegant decor to sweet seasonal treats – can instantly elevate baskets, brunch tables and spring gatherings.

Darling Decor

Few things capture the spirit of spring like a welcoming table. Creating an Easter-ready setting can be simple: pastel eggs nestled in woven baskets, floral runners, ribbons, paper napkins, egg-shaped votives and whimsical bunny accents instantly brighten the scene. Layering soft colors and natural textures helps create a table that feels festive yet effortless.

Brunching with Bunnies

Easter is the perfect excuse to refresh your brunch menu. A signature dish – whether it's a savory quiche, fluffy pancakes or a fresh fruit board – paired with playful mocktails can instantly set a celebratory tone.

For a sweet finishing touch, add a bowl of Ferrero Rocher premium gold-wrapped chocolates to the table. They double as both a treat and eye-catching accent. Guests can also enjoy the brand's first-ever hollow bunny candy, "Bunny and Egg," a festive seasonal chocolate designed especially for Easter celebrations. These elegant treats work just as well tucked into Easter baskets as they do placed around the table for guests to enjoy.

Festive Florals

No spring table is complete without flowers. Seasonal favorites like tulips, daffodils, hyacinths and white lilies can brighten any gathering. Arrange them in rabbit-shaped planters or simple bud vases for a playful touch. For a creative twist, fill clear vases with colorful stones, craft gems or even jellybeans before adding blooms for a centerpiece that feels both festive and fresh.

Beyond Basic Baskets

Easter baskets have evolved beyond simple candy assortments. Today's baskets often feature curated treats and small gifts for everyone at the table. For a premium addition, Ferrero Rocher Golden Eggs – individually wrapped white, milk and dark chocolates with a smooth, indulgent center – bring a touch of elegance to baskets, egg hunts or springtime place settings.

Sweet Moments to Share

Sometimes the most memorable Easter traditions are the simplest ones – sharing dessert after brunch, passing around chocolates at the table or sending guests home with a small sweet treat. Setting out a bowl of chocolates encourages everyone to pause, indulge and celebrate the moment together.

ENTERTAINING ON EASTER 5 TIPS TO MAKE HOLIDAY HOSTING SIMPLE

Easter signals springtime and provides an opportunity to gather with loved ones to celebrate. However, hosting the get-together – whether brunch, lunch or dinner – requires planning and preparation to ensure the event is enjoyable.

From the guest list and menu to the decor and activities for the kiddos, consider these steps to get ready for Easter hosting duties.

Make a Guest List

When planning your gathering, first think about how many people your space can accommodate. Ensure there's a place for everyone to sit and eat, even if that means bringing in extra tables and chairs or designating a "kids table" so all the adults can sit together. Once you know how many people you can invite – and have a plan for seating – send out festive invitations or create a group on social media with your preferred guests to gather RSVPs.

Take Inventory of Necessities

Once you have your guest list set, take inventory of serving dishes, utensils, linens and glassware. Depending on the number of guests, you may need to invest in extra supplies or borrow from a friend or relative to ensure you have everything you need. If you don't have enough of one set of plates and flatware, mixing and matching is a trendy move and can serve as an additional aspect of your decor.

Plan the Menu

When setting your menu, traditional favorites like ham or lamb are almost always a hit but remember to consider any diet accommodations that may need to be made for any vegan or vegetarian guests. Dishes featuring eggs, carrots, ginger and other ingredients that call spring to mind like quiches, soups, galette and more can be a perfect complement to the traditional main course. Serving the meal family-style with platters and bowls for everyone to share or hosting a potluck with guests bringing assigned dishes can help reduce the stress of trying to prepare the entire meal yourself.

Decorate in Advance

From a seasonal wreath on the front door to a well-dressed table complete with place settings and a festive centerpiece, getting your decorating done early can not only reduce stress on the day of your event but also get you into the proper mindset for the celebration. A pastel or light-colored hue can add to the springtime vibes, and flowers, seasonal fruits in bowls and decorated eggs can all add to the tablescapes.

Keep the Kids in Mind

While the meal is likely a highlight of the event for many, the younger guests often look forward to the activities, such as decorating eggs or an Easter egg hunt. You can hard-boil eggs in advance and set up a decorating station, complete with dyes, markers, stickers and more. Or while you're finishing up inside, designate another adult or older children to hide pre-filled plastic eggs around the yard (weather permitting) and manage the hunt.

PALA CASINO'S ELEMENTA SHINES AS A CULINARY OASIS

Story and photos by Rico Cassoni

At Pala Casino Spa Golf Resort, the energy hits you right away. More than 2,000 slot machines fill a 90,000-square-foot gaming floor, from penny reels to high-limit play, alongside table games including blackjack, baccarat, and Pai Gow Poker. Lights flash and wheels spin, whether you're all in or simply taking it in.

On a recent visit, a short walk from the action revealed a noticeable shift in tone. Elementa feels removed from the casino floor, a quieter space where the focus turns to food, wine, and atmosphere. Inspired by Southern California's natural elements, from desert landscapes to the Pacific Ocean, the restaurant offers an immersive dining experience. Sculptural works by Casey Parlette, including fish, sharks, and an eagle, are woven throughout, adding visual interest without overwhelming the room.

Elementa's foundation is built on a seasoned leadership team. Chef de Cuisine Henri Delahaye brings decades of classical French training shaped by his upbringing near the Basque region of France. He began his culinary career at 17 through a formal apprenticeship and refined his craft under Chef Pierre de Portier at a two-star Michelin restaurant. His background in sauces, seafood, and traditional techniques is evident throughout the menu. After selling his catering business, Delahaye relocated to California, with stops in Rancho Santa Fe and La Jolla, including Bistrot du Marché under Chef Jean-Michel Diot. He joined Elementa in 2023.

Sommelier and Room Manager Abraham Marquez and Food and Beverage Director Sarah Jacqlyn round out the experience. Marquez, a San Marcos native with 25 years in wine, blends technical knowledge with a philosophy emphasizing simplicity and balance. Jacqlyn's background spans Estancia La Jolla, Addison, and Omni La Costa, and she continues her WSET Level 3 studies.

Our wine and food journey began with a warm welcome from Food and Beverage Director Sarah Jacqlyn, followed by time with Chef de Cuisine Henri Delahaye and a thoughtful discussion of the wine program with Sommelier Abraham Marquez. Marquez noted that Elementa's cellar includes select legacy inventory from prior programs, with pricing intentionally held steady. One standout was a 2008 Del Dotto Napa Valley Sangiovese, a beautifully expressive wine that set the tone for the evening.

Following bread service, the octopus appetizer arrived perfectly prepared, tender with a clean finish and no trace of a rubbery texture. Accompaniments of chorizo, squid ink sauce, mango, blood orange, and mixed greens created a layered, balanced dish that paired seamlessly with the Sangiovese.

Caramelized scallops followed, and as longtime readers know, I am particular when it comes to their preparation. The scallops delivered, with a beautiful sear, a tender interior, and a rich butter sauce that showcased Delahaye's classical French roots.

With the next course, Marquez transitioned to a 2016 Del Dotto Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon-dominant Bordeaux to complement a refined rabbit loin entrée. Mild and well-balanced, the dish avoided any gaminess and was served over a polenta round with snap peas, squash, and baby shiitake mushrooms in a mustard-forward sauce that worked beautifully with the wine.

For the main course, a 2012 Nickel & Nickel Rock Cairn Cabernet Sauvignon from Oakville was paired with an 8-ounce ribeye cap from Snake River Farms. Cooked to a precise medium rare, the steak was richly marbled, tender, and deeply flavorful. At the recommendation of our server, Andres Pemberton, both Béarnaise and Cognac au Poivre sauces were added, elevating each bite. A 2005 Conn Creek Cabernet Sauvignon from St. Helena was poured as a fitting finish to one of the most memorable steak courses in recent memory.

Dessert brought a Pear Delight, featuring pear ice cream, panna cotta shaped like a pear, and pear purée. Marquez concluded the evening with a 1907 D'Oliveiras Madeira, a remarkable and unforgettable final note.

Elementa delivers a refined escape within Pala Casino Spa Golf Resort, where thoughtful cuisine, a deep wine program, and attentive service align. From Chef Delahaye's classical foundation to the leadership of Sarah Jacqlyn, the guidance of Sommelier Abraham Marquez, and the hospitality of server Andres Pemberton, the experience is both polished and refined. More at Elementa.

ILLUMINATION HEALTH RAISES $1.75 MILLION TO SUPPORT OC FAMILIES

It was an elegant and heartfelt evening at the Hyatt Regency Irvine, as community leaders, philanthropists, food lovers, and changemakers came together for Illumination Health + Home's annual Chef's Table: An Epicurean Experience, raising more than $1.75 million to support Orange County families and individuals experiencing homelessness.

With over 400 guests in attendance, the gala was a beautiful reminder of what can happen when a community unites around a cause that truly matters. The evening was chaired by Illumination board member and Development Committee Chair Karen Jordan, whose leadership helped set the tone for a night filled with generosity, inspiration, and purpose.

From the moment guests arrived, there was a buzz of excitement in the air. The cocktail reception offered a lively start to the evening, complete with a silent auction and an impressive array of culinary offerings from some of Southern California's most celebrated chefs. Guests had the chance to mix and mingle while sampling bites from Rich Mead of Farmhouse at Roger's Gardens; Adam Navidi of Oceans and Earth; Ben Martinek of Viamara at The Elwood Club; Kevin Meyer of TGIS Catering; Daniel Hohng of The Park Club; David Martin of The Pacific Club; Shachi Mehra of ADYA; and Jose Angulo of Descanso Restaurant.

The ballroom was beautifully transformed for the dinner and program that followed, creating a sophisticated setting for what was truly a milestone evening. Guests were treated to a multi-course dining experience curated by Chef Kori Sutton, private chef and winner of Hell's Kitchen, whose talent and heart were both evident throughout the night. Sutton shared that food has the power to bring people together, but on this night, it did even more—it helped drive meaningful change for some of Orange County's most vulnerable residents.

The gala's mission was front and center as attendees learned more about Illumination Health + Home and the organization's innovative model of care, which brings together housing, healthcare, and essential support services to help unhoused individuals and families find stability and long-term well-being. Funds raised from the evening will directly support programs that provide medical and behavioral healthcare, case management, access to housing, and wraparound services designed to help people heal, rebuild, and move forward.

Illumination CEO Dr. Pooja Bhalla spoke passionately about the organization's commitment to restoring hope and changing lives, emphasizing that the generosity of the evening's supporters will allow Illumination to continue expanding access to the care families need to grow and thrive. Her remarks reflected the spirit of the night, which was equal parts elegant celebration and powerful call to action.

One of the things that made the gala especially moving was how it highlighted not only the challenges many families face, but also the real solutions Illumination is providing every day. The organization has been redefining care for Orange County's unhoused population through a full continuum of services that stretches from street outreach to permanent supportive housing. Their work is practical, compassionate, and life-changing.

The evening also included special recognition of two outstanding partners whose commitment to the community reflects Illumination's mission. The Bera Family was honored for its multigenerational dedication to education, healthcare access, and community advancement. UniHealth Foundation was also recognized for its continued leadership in improving population health, strengthening the healthcare workforce, and expanding care for underserved communities.

Adding even more excitement to the gala was a live auction and a high-energy closing performance by LIVE 61, featuring Mark McGrath of Sugar Ray and Skip Martin of Kool & the Gang and The Dazz Band. Their performance brought guests to their feet and ended the evening on a joyful, celebratory note.

The presenting sponsor for the event was the Bickerstaff Family Foundation. Additional sponsors included Golden Eagle Foundation, Karen Jordan, Experian, U.S. Bank, Jacqueline Dupont-Carlson and Mark Carlson, Haynes Family Fund, Frome Family Foundation, Fisher & Phillips, and Kaiser Permanente.

In every way, Chef's Table was a shining example of Orange County's generous heart. It was a night where incredible food, heartfelt purpose, and a strong sense of community came together under one roof. Beyond the glamour of the gala and the star power in the room, what stood out most was the shared commitment to helping families and individuals find dignity, healing, and a pathway home.

Illumination Health + Home continues to be a powerful force for good in Orange County, proving that when housing, healthcare, and human compassion work hand in hand, lives can truly be transformed. To learn more, visit www.ifhomeless.org.

Directory Advertising Hits the Jackpot for Small Business with a Limited Ad Budget $49.95

"I'm not a big business, but I know that you have to advertise someplace and these little ads don't cost too much so I figure if you expect to get any new customers, I gave the little 'directory' ads in the newspaper a try. Nothing happened for the first week, not even a phone call. Then Boom! comes three new customers. Paid for my little ads and a nice profit. I'd say I hit the jackpot. Sign me up for another week newspaper ladies!"

The above story may not be exciting but is typical of advertisers who are shopping for advertising that is affordable but gives them something back for their money. Here's another:

As a Woman Who Owns A Small Business These Newspaper Directory Ads are a Great Value

"We women have to work harder to make a small business grow. Thanks to small, affordable ads in this newspaper I've got ads running every week. Every call helps my business grow. I give you an A+ for good prices and steady results."

Looking for the Penny Saver in all the Wrong Places

"I Used to get pretty good results from the Penny Saver, but when the Penny Saver closed up, I found this newspaper's little directory ads are even cheaper and work just about as good. Usually get two or three calls a month and most of them wind up being my customers. My bookkeeper says your directory ads work pretty good for the money"

Newspaper Directory Ads Worked Just Fine, Cost Less than Half! Nice!

"We tried some slick magazine ads that had beautiful pictures on the cover and they worked real good for a while but they were costing us an arm and a leg so we tried these little directory ads in your newspaper. The ads are smaller, but cost way less than half of what we were paying the magazines and the newspaper directory ads seem to work about as well. We are glad we tried them. They are a pretty good deal for the low price."

New Business Owner Likes Lower Priced Ads

"I Just Started my New Business and Happy that I Can Afford Your Newspaper Directory Ads. I need to attract new customers and these ads are priced just right."
